

NEW HAVEN SUIT SEEMS ASSURED

Rebel Ready to Declare Suspension of Hostilities.

CARRANZA APPOINTS ENVOYS

New President of Mexico Names Three Constitutionalists to Confer With a Like Delegation to Be Named by General Carranza for the Purpose of Turning Over the Government.

Washington, July 21.—General Carranza informed the United States government that he is ready to declare a suspension of hostilities against the government of Provisional President Carbajal, Huerta's successor, pending negotiations with his representatives for the transfer of authority at Mexico City to the Constitutionalists.

The Constitutional chief presented his views in most cordial terms to John R. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson, Consul General Hanna and Vice Consul Robertson, who interviewed him at Monterey.

Not only did he voice a willingness to receive the commission of three appointed by Provisional President Carbajal to discuss peace, but said he would send an escort to meet them and provide safe conduct through Constitutional territory.

Inasmuch as the three men chosen by Mr. Carranza are Constitutionalists who have been in hiding in Mexico City and are thoroughly in accord with General Carranza's policy, as well as personal friends of Mr. Carranza, the impression is general that the negotiations for a transfer of authority of government will be successful.

General Carranza is insistent, however, that the surrender of the Carbajal government should be unconditional. He is willing, it is declared by his representative, here, to grant a limited amnesty, not as a condition of surrender, but as a voluntary act of generosity on the part of the Constitutionalists after they obtain the reins of government.

Monterey, Mex., July 19 (via Laredo, Tex., July 21).—San Luis Potosi is in the hands of the Constitutional forces under General Jesus Carranza and the railroad line between that point and Mexico City is open, according to an official report which reached General Carranza here.

The official report of the capture says Carrera Torres encountered a force of federals estimated at 5,300 at Porto Ozuero, on the outskirts of San Luis Potosi, and drove them in confusion into the city.

Torres, it is said, succeeded in attacking the federals in a narrow canyon, which they were unable to hold.

UNIONISTS BITTER OVER CONFERENCE

Declare Premier Took Initiative to Gain Time.

London, July 21.—Extremely heated criticisms of the contemplated conference at Buckingham palace between King George and the leaders of the Liberal, Unionist, Nationalist and Ulsterite parties on the Irish home rule bill was heard in Unionist clubs. Members of the Unionist party expressed the view that their party again has been outmaneuvered by Premier Asquith and at a moment when, through the house of lords reconstruction of the amendment to the home rule bill, they were in a better position than for a long time.

The initiative for the conference was taken by Premier Asquith and not by King George, according to these Unionists, and the premier's one and only object was to gain time and prevent a provisional government in Ulster being constituted until after parliament had adjourned, thus avoiding criticism of his followers and possible defeat on division.

FREE HOMES BILL MAY BE ENACTED

Congress Will Soon Be Forced to Pass Measure.

RAKER STIRS UP THE HOUSE

California Congressman Always Starting Something That Causes an Eruption—Donovan Puzzled as to Why Congress Should Pay Salaries to Widows of Members.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, July 21.—[Special.]—The time is coming when congress will probably enact another "free homes bill." Commencing about twenty-five years ago, the policy of the government was to break up the Indian reservations, pay the Indians for the lands and open them to settlement. That caused many "land rushes," for always there are eager settlers seeking a new country.

Provision was made that the settlers should pay the general government the same price per acre which the Indians received for the lands. That went on for many years, and then came the demand for "free homes," with the result that an act was passed which remitted the payment by these settlers save the nominal fees which settlers on other public lands paid.

The time is undoubtedly coming when the same "free homes" demand will be made in behalf of settlers who have engaged to pay such high rates for lands under the reclamation act. Everything seems to be pointing that way.

Always Doing Something.
Congressman Raker of California is always doing something. He is constantly stirring up things, just going beyond the limits of the rules of the house or something like it which causes an eruption. One day he had a report made on a subject relating to California in which many pictures were printed. Of course the watchful minority leader, Jim Mann, jumped on this hard. The discussion ran along for some time, and Mann would not consent to consideration of the bill because the report contained pictures.

"I have never had the chance to examine them," said Mann.
"The pictures are pretty," said Raker.
"Then I want to take a look at them," said Mann. "I must have a chance to look at the pretty pictures that the gentleman says he inserted."
And Mann objected, but Raker had his pictures printed as a public document just the same.

Papa to the Farmer.
It was Congressman Quin of Mississippi that gave the house a new expression. They were talking about agriculture and what the house is doing for the farmers, and the question of "paternalism" came up. Quin made the statement that the government could do a lot for the farmer and still never be guilty of paternalism. "And I want to say right here that if there is any man in the United States whom the government ought to be a papa to it is the farmer."

A little further on Quin told about how the farmer had been overruled by oppressors, but his time was coming. "Now we are putting the bits into the mouths of the plutocrats," he said. "We are putting the saddle on them; they are going to buck and snort and stand up on their hind legs. But a Daniel has come to judgment." Quin thinks the income tax is doing a great deal of this.

It Puzzled Donovan.
There was a little squabble going on in the house as to whether a widow of a dead member should be paid $7,500, a year's salary, which has been the custom. The house had refused to pay a like amount to the father of an unmarried man who had died while he was a member of the house. Jerry Donovan of Connecticut wanted information. He wanted to know why it was that the salary of $7,500 was paid to members of the house who never spent a day in the house. Jerry insisted that men ought to be paid according to the work they did. To carry out that theory might be a cure for absenteeism.

Autos Versus Horses.
It would seem that a coachman and a chauffeur ought to be attached to the house of representatives, especially when the bills come up providing for automobiles and carriages for officials of the departments. Not long ago Minority Leader Mann and Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee, with others butting in from time to time, indulged in a long debate over the question of relative cost of automobiles and horses. And they didn't settle it. Different men gave their personal experience as to the relative cost of transportation, but it developed into a contest of favorites, and no conclusion was ever reached.

The Mississippi Senators.

Probably there never was such a total disagreement between senators as that which exists between Williams and Vardaman of Mississippi. They do not hesitate to disclose their animosity on the floor of the senate and in sharp language. It is surprising that something besides a wordy war should not break out between these two men.

PATMONT'S FRIENDS LATEST KIDNAPPERS

Minister Carried Away to Recuperate His Health.

Milwaukee, July 21.—Rev. Louis R. Patmont, who disappeared from Detroit more than a month ago, has been found and is hidden once again, but this time he is in the custody of his friends, who declare that he will not be allowed to see any one for a week at least, until he recovers from his attack of nervous hysteria.

This was the word brought to Milwaukee by August Patmont, his brother.
"The real story of what is wrong with Louis will soon come out," he said, "but not now. My brother has been treated fairly and it is certain that his mind is not in a proper condition."
Patmont's friends here take this to mean that Patmont has again been the victim of his mysterious enemies, who were involved in the Westville, Ill., kidnapping and it is hinted, as their explanation of his mental condition, that he has been drugged until he is a mental wreck.

After a week it is expected that Patmont will come out from retirement and tell his story of his wanderings.

Attorney General and Directors Unable to Agree.

CRIMINAL ACTIONS LIKELY

Effort Will Also Be Made to Have a Federal Grand Jury in New York Return Indictments Against Many Directors Who Served When It Was Building Up an Alleged Illegal Combine.

Washington, July 21.—Civil suit to separate the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company from its subsidiary rail, trolley and steamship lines will be brought by Attorney General McReynolds in the United States district court within the next few days.

A final effort to settle the problem without litigation ended in failure, although the attorney general, T. W. Gregory, special assistant in charge of the case, and a committee of New Haven directors were in conference for many hours.

The committee came to discuss the sale of the Boston and Maine stock owned by the New Haven. It desired this sale to be made free of conditions imposed by the state of Massachusetts and is said to have declared that an unconditional sale of the Boston and Maine stock would insure a price $10,000,000 above what the New Haven might otherwise hope to get.

The New Haven case will be laid before President Wilson and the cabinet and a detailed explanation of the course pursued by the department in its long negotiations with the railroad to separate it from court probably will follow. It is not doubted that the department's course will be approved.

There is little doubt here that on the heels of the suit will come an effort to have a federal grand jury in New York return indictments against many directors of the New Haven who served in the days when it was building up a system which the attorney general holds is a combination in restraint of trade.

Never before has any administration planned to prosecute criminally men of such prominence in the financial and business world and the outcome of these proceedings may determine the value of the Sherman law as a criminal statute.

RESTORES LAND TO ENTRY

Bill Passed by House Refers to Tract on Upper Mississippi.

Washington, July 21.—A bill passed by the house, on motion of Representative Lindbergh, restored to entry a large tract of land in Minnesota at the headwaters of the Mississippi river. It would seem that a coachman and a chauffeur ought to be attached to the house of representatives, especially when the bills come up providing for automobiles and carriages for officials of the departments. Not long ago Minority Leader Mann and Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee, with others butting in from time to time, indulged in a long debate over the question of relative cost of automobiles and horses. And they didn't settle it. Different men gave their personal experience as to the relative cost of transportation, but it developed into a contest of favorites, and no conclusion was ever reached.

The Mississippi Senators.

Probably there never was such a total disagreement between senators as that which exists between Williams and Vandaman of Mississippi. They do not hesitate to disclose their animosity on the floor of the senate and in sharp language. It is surprising that something besides a wordy war should not break out between these two men.

PAUL M. WARBURG.

Banker Agrees to Appear Before Senate Committee.

Washington, July 21.—As a result of developments Paul M. Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., probably will become a member of the federal reserve board without question. Senator O'Gorman met Warburg at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and as a result it can be said that Mr. Warburg will meet the senate committee on banking and currency.

PATMONT'S FRIENDS
LATEST KIDNAPPERS

Minister Carried Away to Recuperate His Health.

Milwaukee, July 21.—Rev. Louis R. Patmont, who disappeared from Detroit more than a month ago, has been found and is hidden once again, but this time he is in the custody of his friends, who declare that he will not be allowed to see any one for a week at least, until he recovers from his attack of nervous hysteria.

This was the word brought to Milwaukee by August Patmont, his brother.
"The real story of what is wrong with Louis will soon come out," he said, "but not now. My brother has been treated foully and it is certain that his mind is not in a proper condition."

Patmont's friends here take this to mean that Patmont has again been the victim of his mysterious enemies, who were involved in the Westville, Ill., kidnapping and it is hinted, as their explanation of his mental condition, that he has been drugged until he is a mental wreck.

After a week it is expected that Patmont will come out from retirement and tell his story of his wanderings.

WERE OUSTED FROM UNION

Six Brewery Workers Appear Before District Attorney.

Chicago, July 21.—Charges that dishonest business agents of labor unions have been able to discipline unruly members of the union as well as contractors and employees were made to the federal grand jury investigating charges that the labor representatives had been guilty of blackmail.

Six former members of the International Brewery Workers' union told Albert L. Hopkins, assistant district attorney, that they had been ousted from the union and barred from employment at their trades because they had sought to investigate the financial operations of the union agents.

CONVICTS TO CLEAR LAND

Plan Favored by Minnesota Federation of Labor.

Duluth, July 21.—The State Federation of Labor opened its convention with 500 delegates present. Mayor Prince welcomed the visitors.

President E. G. Hall made his report and so did Secretary-Treasurer W. E. McEwen. The latter urged the extension of the initiative and referendum and praised the workmen's compensation law.

The committee on convict labor appointed last year in a report demanded the abolition of convict factory labor, approved the using of convicts in the clearing of state lands under the honor system, but declared that convicts "must not be exploited for private profit or in unfair competition with free labor."

GEORGE VIEWS GREAT FLEET

Sea Planes Fly in Paris Above British Royal Yacht.

Portsmouth, Eng., July 21.—The British home fleet, composed of more than two hundred fighting ships and an equal number of auxiliaries, including submarines, torpedo boat destroyers and sea planes, was led out to sea by King George. His majesty was on board the royal yacht, accompanied by the Prince of Wales, Winston Spencer Churchill and the lords of the admiralty.

The ships in line abreast passed in review before his majesty, while the fleet of sea planes flew in pairs above the royal yacht. It took the ships two hours to pass before the king.

Friends Plan Statue in Honor of Mme. Nordica.

New York, July 21.—Friends of the late Mme. Nordica have enlisted the aid of prominent musicians and music lovers in a plan to erect a heroic statue of the diva in Central park.

Should a statue to Madame Nordica be erected it will be the only one of a woman in a park in New York and, according to a recent investigator, one of three women in the United States. Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney, it is understood, will be asked to design the statue.

Wilson Absolves the Tariff.

Washington, July 21.—President Wilson said that during his recent conferences with business men, those men who think conditions had not held the tariff responsible. The consensus of opinion he gathered is that business needs time to adjust itself to the tariff.

Lives With Broken Neck.

Duluth, July 21.—Although his neck is broken William Seaford, a laborer, is alive in the Two Harbors hospital. While riding on a load of milk cans Seaford was jolted off, landing on his head on the pavement.

Attorney General and Directors Unable to Agree.

CRIMINAL ACTIONS LIKELY

Effort Will Also Be Made to Have a Federal Grand Jury in New York Return Indictments Against Many Directors Who Served When It Was Building Up an Alleged Illegal Combine.

Washington, July 21.—Civil suit to separate the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company from its subsidiary rail, trolley and steamship lines will be brought by Attorney General McReynolds in the United States district court within the next few days.

A final effort to settle the problem without litigation ended in failure, although the attorney general, T. W. Gregory, special assistant in charge of the case, and a committee of New Haven directors were in conference for many hours.

The committee came to discuss the sale of the Boston and Maine stock owned by the New Haven. It desired this sale to be made free of conditions imposed by the state of Massachusetts and is said to have declared that an unconditional sale of the Boston and Maine stock would insure a price $10,000,000 above what the New Haven might otherwise hope to get.

The New Haven case will be laid before President Wilson and the cabinet and a detailed explanation of the course pursued by the department in its long negotiations with the railroad to separate it from court probably will follow. It is not doubted that the department's course will be approved.

There is little doubt here that on the heels of the suit will come an effort to have a federal grand jury in New York return indictments against many directors of the New Haven who served in the days when it was building up a system which the attorney general holds is a combination in restraint of trade.

Never before has any administration planned to prosecute criminally men of such prominence in the financial and business world and the outcome of these proceedings may determine the value of the Sherman law as a criminal statute.

In the civil suit the New Haven will be charged with being a monopoly in control of New England's transportation and with being a combination in restraint of trade and in violation of the Sherman law.

RESTORES LAND TO ENTRY

Bill Passed by House Refers to Tract on Upper Mississippi.

Washington, July 21.—A bill passed by the house, on motion of Representative Lindbergh, restored to entry a large tract of land in Minnesota at the headwaters of the Mississippi river. The land, which is located in Aitkin, St. Louis, Crow Wing, Cass, Hubbard, Itasca, Beltrami and Koochiching counties, about 6,000 acres, was withdrawn for housing purposes at the time of the construction of the Mississippi dams and reservoirs. The bill, offered in the senate by Senator Nelson, probably will become a law soon.

Aladdin, Wyo., July 21.—William Flanders is in jail here charged with the murder of his wife and Sam Hall, a neighbor.

Flanders was beating his wife, it is alleged, when Hall and his wife heard the woman's screams and interfered. They found the woman unconscious. Flanders had disappeared. Later, it is alleged, he returned and fired the fatal shots.

Mrs. Hall and Flanders' son fled to safety. While a posse was searching for Flanders he gave himself up to local officials.

Being a year behind the styles induced the Minneapolis equalization board to abate the assessment on wearing apparel for a woman who applied for that favor. Out of style clothing appears to be valueless in the mill city.

Minnesota has added 1357 acres to the Itasca state park by purchase from T. B. Walker. The last legislature appropriated $100,000 for the purchase of land in Itasca park and on the land acquired at a cost of $50,000 the timber has been appraised at $844,438.

Bemidji is attempting to frame up an ordinance regarding the sale of liquor that will prevent any possibility of an Indian obtaining booze, one of the provisions being that no liquor shall be sold in bottles and what is purchased by a customer must be drunk on the premises, and included in the new regulation is a clause regulating the size of the glasses in which liquor may be sold. Pussyfoot Johnson's raid on the saloons in the Indian country under government direction is the cause of the attempt of the authorities in that section to now so regulate the traffic that it will be impossible for Indians to obtain liquor and thereby lessen the chances of putting the lid on by the government in the sections coming under the early treaties.

The recent excursion of the Northern Minnesota Editorial Association to the northern part of the state was one of the most successful and delightful trips in the history of the organization, and from an educational standpoint, or "See Minnesota First," is surpassed the expectations of those who planned and carried out the arrangements. International Falls, Baudette, Spooner and other border cities were visited by nearly 150 people who took advantage of the opportunity offered to visit that section, and a boat ride on the Kenora across Lake of the woods was one of the pleasant remembrances. From the Canadian point, Kenora, the party went to warroad and back to International Falls and home. The editors are loud in their praise of the treatment received all along the line on the Canadian side as well as the Minnesota points. Among those who were remembered in the resolutions passed was W. H. Gemmell, of the Minnesota & International road, for courtesies extended and efforts which made the trip so successfully enjoyable.

Doc Rutledge, secretary of the association, came in for a merited share of praise. The only regret is that the writer could not have been with the party, but absence from the state made it impossible.

MANAGER PETERSON REPLIES

Makes a Dignified Statement Regarding the Brainerd-Verndale
Baseball Game

In a dignified statement devoid of oratorical bombast, Manager D. A.
Peterson, of the Brainerd baseball team, speaks of the Brainerd-Verndale game played at Brainerd and in a communication to the editor of the Brainerd Dispatch, Mr. Peterson says:
"Will you kindly allow me a small space in your good paper to tell the people of Brainerd what a bad, bad man I am to be the manager of our baseball team. No doubt, you have all seen the nice, up to date, writeup
I got from the vice president of the First National Bank of Verndale.

I surely will say it's one of the most outrageous false statements that any good American citizen ever made.
Any law-abiding citizen who calls himself an American knows that Sunday baseball is only allowed to be played between the hours of 3 P. M. to 6 P. M. At the time Brainerd played Verndale at Brainerd July 12, the game was a tie up to the first half of the 12th inning. Verndale at bat and at the said time Verndale made two scores. Then their last man went out and the time was 6 o'clock with Brainerd to bat. The umpire for Verndale, not a Brainerd man, called the game a tie.

Who is to blame? I say, no one,
as the Verndale umpire was correct, and we thought nothing of it as it's a state law. But you should have heard the Verndale fans roast the manager of the Brainerd team.

Brainerd wants good, clean baseball. That's all they ask and we intend to abide by all the umpire's rulings as long as it's clean baseball.
Let the Verndale people use their tactics all they wish. We will treat them as Americans and law-abiding.

It makes no difference to us how bad they try to make us in the public eye. We are no kickers. All we ask from any good, clean, baseball team is a fair shake.

We ask no odds from any of them.
The vice president of the Verndale bank has gotten his wires crossed.
He puts me in mind of a sissy boy, as he calls it, just in his third reader at St. Cloud.

The teacher wanted some plums in order to give an object lesson during school hours, and calling one of the boys, she gave him ten cents and despatched him to the fruit stand down on the corner.

"Before you buy the plums, Willie," she continued, "you had better pinch one or two to make sure they are ripe."

Little Willie flitted away. Soon he came back and smilingly put the bag on the teacher's desk.

"Oh, thank you, Willie," said the teacher, taking up the bag. "Did you pinch one or two as I told you to do?"

"Did I" was the gleeful response.
"I pinched the whole bagful and here's your ten cents." Then the teacher sends poor Willie home.

He gets a few of his Verndale friends together and they finally decide to show off by trying to pull off a new stunt. So Mr. President of the First National Bank of Verndale starts off again.

"As a local preacher once drove in a cab to the village church to preach, upon his arrival he was somewhat

Being a year behind the styles induced the Minneapolis equalization board to abate the assessment on wearing apparel for a woman who applied for that favor. Out of style clothing appears to be valueless in the mill city.

Minnesota has added 1357 acres to the Itasca state park by purchase from T. B. Walker. The last legislature appropriated $100,000 for the purchase of land in Itasca park and on the land acquired at a cost of $50,000 the timber has been appraised at $344,438.

Bemidji is attempting to frame up an ordinance regarding the sale of liquor that will prevent any possibility of an Indian obtaining booze, one of the provisions being that no liquor shall be sold in bottles and what is purchased by a customer must be drunk on the premises, and included in the new regulation is a clause regulating the size of the glasses in which liquor may be sold. Pussyfoot Johnson's raid on the saloons in the Indian country under government direction is the cause of the attempt of the authorities in that section to now so regulate the traffic that it will be impossible for Indians to obtain liquor and thereby lessen the chances of putting the lid on by the government in the sections coming under the early treaties.

The recent excursion of the Northern Minnesota Editorial Association to the northern part of the state was one of the most successful and delightful trips in the history of the organization, and from an educational standpoint, or "See Minnesota First," is surpassed the expectations of those who planned and carried out the arrangements. International Falls, Baudette, Spooner and other border cities were visited by nearly 150 people who took advantage of the opportunity offered to visit that section, and a boat ride on the Kenora across Lake of the Woods was one of the pleasant remembrances. From the Canadian point, Kenora, the party went to Arrowhead and back to International Falls and home. The editors are loud in their praise of the treatment received all along the line on the Canadian side as well as the Minnesota points. Among those who were remembered in the resolutions passed was W. H. Gemmell, of the Minnesota and International road, for courtesies extended and efforts which made the trip so successfully enjoyable. Doc Rutledge, secretary of the association, came in for a merited share of praise. The only regret is that the writer could not have been with the party, but absence from the state made it impossible.

MANAGER PETERSON REPLIES

Makes a Dignified Statement Regarding the Brainerd-Verndale Baseball Game

In a dignified statement devoid of oratorical bombast, Manager D. A. Peterson, of the Brainerd baseball team, speaks of the Brainerd-Verndale game played at Brainerd and in a communication to the editor of the Brainerd Dispatch, Mr. Peterson says: "Will you kindly allow me a small space in your good paper to tell the people of Brainerd what a bad, bad man I am to be the manager of our baseball team. No doubt, you have all seen the nice, up to date, writeup I got from the vice president of the First National Bank of Verndale.

I surely will say it's one of the most outrageous false statements that any good American citizen ever made. Any law-abiding citizen who calls himself an American knows that Sunday baseball is only allowed to be played between the hours of 3 P. M. to 6 P. M. At the time Brainerd played Verndale at Brainerd July 12, the game was a tie up to the first half of the 12th inning. Verndale at bat and at the said time Verndale made two scores. Then their last man went out and the time was 6 o'clock with Brainerd to bat. The umpire for Verndale, not a Brainerd man, called the game a tie.

Who is to blame? I say, no one, as the Verndale umpire was correct, and we thought nothing of it as it's a state law. But you should have heard the Verndale fans roast the manager of the Brainerd team.

Brainerd wants good, clean baseball. That's all they ask and we intend to abide by all the umpire's rulings as long as it's clean baseball. Let the Verndale people use their tactics all they wish. We will treat them as Americans and law-abiding. It makes no difference to us how bad they try to make us in the public eye. We are no kickers. All we ask from any good, clean, baseball team is a fair shake.

We ask no odds from any of them. The vice president of the Verndale bank has gotten his wires crossed. He puts me in mind of a sissy boy, as he calls it, just in his third reader at St. Cloud.

The teacher wanted some plums in order to give an object lesson during school hours, and calling one of the boys, she gave him ten cents and despatched him to the fruit stand down on the corner.

"Before you buy the plums, Willie," she continued, "you had better pinch one or two to make sure they are ripe."

Little Willie flitted away. Soon he came back and smilingly put the bag on the teacher's desk.

"Oh, thank you, Willie," said the teacher, taking up the bag. "Did you pinch one or two as I told you to do?"

"Did I," was the gleeful response. "I pinched the whole bagful and here's your ten cents." Then the teacher sends poor Willie home.

He gets a few of his Verndale friends together and they finally decide to show off by trying to pull off a new stunt. So Mr. President of the First National Bank of Verndale starts off again.

"As a local preacher once drove in a cab to the village church to preach, upon his arrival he was somewhat

Notice Regarding Small Pox Quarantine

For the benefit of those not familiar with the recent regulations of our state board of health concerning the quarantine of small pox patients and those in same house, I wish to quote from said board the following: "Small pox patients must not leave the house until after the removal of the warning card. Every person exposed to small pox, who cannot show evidence of a recent successful vaccination or a recent attack of small pox, must be vaccinated within three days of first exposure or be isolated for 21 days after last exposure. Only those protected by vaccination are allowed to go into or from the house where small pox exists."

DEATH OF JOHN McGUIRE

Father of Mrs. J. J. Cummins, Resident of Brainerd 19 Years, Passed Away Saturday

At 9 o'clock Monday morning was held the funeral of John McGuire, aged 85, father of Mrs. J. J. Cummins who passed away Saturday at the home of his daughter in Northeast Brainerd. Rev. J. J. O'Mahoney, of St. Francis Catholic church, officiated at the funeral services.

Mr. McGuire had lived 19 years in Brainerd. He was born in Ireland and came to this country when a young man, settling in Wisconsin. He was married about 57 years ago and four children, two boys and two girls. Of these two survive him, Mrs. J. J. Cummins and Miss Mary McGuire. He was a devoted member of the Catholic church.

To the sorrowing family the sympathy of the community is freely extended.

Contributed

The following little gem written by California's poetess, Mrs. Mary L. W. Towle, and never published, is given us through the courtesy of Rev. Caleb Benkham:

IT IS THE LORD
John xxi: 7.
When tolling vainly on the restless tide,
You cast your net upon the "other side,"
And find your draught of fishes multiplied
"It is the Lord."

When oft from nights of sorrow you arise,
Greeting the brightness of the morning skies,
Which flood you with a new and glad surprise,
"It is the Lord."

When you have cast your burdens all aside,
When passion is subdued and self denied,
In the o'ercoming you have testified,
"It is the Lord."

When morning dawns upon a night of pain,
And hope replumes your drooping wings,
And sunshine breaks the spell of cloud and rain,
"It is the Lord."

When winds have blown some bright-eyed flower to you,
Charged with a cup of fragrance and of dew,
As though the asking of your heart it knew,
"It is the Lord."

TRAINING OF TEACHERS LAW

Law Applies to all Teachers in Public Schools, and the Exceptions are Noted

TRAINING COURSES ARE GIVEN

Teaching Done Subsequent to Aug. 1, 1915 Will Not Supply Lack of Professional Training

At the request of Mrs. Irma Camp Hartley, county superintendent of schools, the Dispatch gives the law on the professional training of teachers.

At the session of the legislature of 1913 this act was passed:

"From and after August 1, 1915, all candidates for teachers' certificates by examination, renewal, or endorsement of credentials, except those who have taught successfully for at least eighteen months in the public schools prior to such date, or those receiving a second or limited certificate, must have completed such a course of professional training for teaching not exceeding thirty-six weeks, as may be prescribed by the state superintendent.

"Training courses in the state university, in state normal schools, in state high schools, or in private schools fully and fairly the equivalent of those given in state schools and approved by the said superintendent shall be accepted as meeting the requirements for teachers' training under this section."

To whom this applies is important. The professional training required under this act applies to all teachers in public schools (high schools, grades, rural schools, special teachers) except, (1) those who have taught eighteen months of public school prior to August 1, 1915, and (2) to those who, then or later, receive only a second grade or a limited common school certificate. In effect, it will be required of all teachers who apply for a first grade common school certificate, a professional certificate, first or second grade, a special certificate, except those who have had the required teaching experience of eighteen months prior to August 1, 1915.

Teachers who are issued second grade or limited common school certificates, but who, on August 15, 1915, lack the eighteen months teaching experience, will be required to secure the professional training in order to secure a first grade common school certificate or one of any higher grade. Teaching done subsequent to August 1, 1915, will not supply the lack of professional training for securing a first grade or any higher certificate.

At the request of Mrs. Irma Camp Hartley, county superintendent of schools, the Dispatch gives the law on the professional training of teachers.

At the session of the legislature of 1913 this act was passed:

"From and after August 1, 1915, all candidates for teachers' certificates by examination, renewal, or endorsement of credentials, except those who have taught successfully for at alent of those given in state schools and approved by the said superintendent shall be accepted as meeting the requirements for teachers' training under this section."

To whom this applies is important.
The professional training required under this act applies to all teachers in public schools (high schools, grades, rural schools, special teachers) except, (1) those who have taught eighteen months of public school prior to August 1, 1915, and
(2) to those who, then or later, receive only a second grade or a limited common school certificate. In effect, it will be required of all teachers who apply for a first grade common school certificate, a professional certificate, first or second grade, a special certificate, except those who have had the required teaching experience of eighteen months prior to August 1, 1915.

Teachers who are issued second grade or limited common school certificates, but who, on August 15, 1915 lack the eighteen months teaching experience, will be required to secure the professional training in order to secure a first grade common school certificate or one of any higher grade.
Teaching done subsequent to August 1, 1915, will not supply the lack of professional training for securing a first grade or any higher certificate.

WRITES BANK ADS THAT PULL

S. L. Frazier, Vice President First National Bank of Verndale, Landed in

THE NORTHWESTERN BANKER

Pioneer in Producing Real, Original Ads Increasing his Bank Deposits $75,000

S. L. Frazier, of Verndale, who boosted so well for his home town ball team, is a natural booster and does the same good work with his bank, the First National, in a several page article in The Northwestern Banker, he is paid this tribute: "As a writer of real, original and up-to-date advertisements, Mr. Frazier will probably rank first in the United States, for the First National Bank of Verndale, Minn., is known far and wide because of the unique ads which this live, progressive banker has written. Has it paid? Has it brought results? An increase of $75,000 deposits and 250 checking accounts tells the story."

In telling the story on "How We Write Bank Ads That Pull," Mr. Frazier says: "Until some four years since we 'did it' like every other banker did it and as the ethics of this very dignified business demanded we do it, viz: by publishing a 2x4 card in the southwest corner of the local paper, a professional card encircled by a heavy black line (indicative of mourning) the entire ad, if such it might be termed, being in the nature of an epitaph on some neglected tombstone, in some out of the way cemetery, so obscured by weeds and grasses and trees, it required the services of the county surveyor to locate it."

On that wonderful card, tucked away where no one would be apt to see it, could be found, with the aid of a microscope, the names of the mighty men who controlled the destinies of the "Squedunk National Bank."

"Richard Rusty, President, Christopher Crusty, Cashier," followed by an amazing array of old 'stiffs' on stills, pompous, patronizing, punctilious, petrified mummies, with side-whiskers, who knew nothing about the banking business, but were supposed to give the institution becoming dignity, a stove-polish finish and a sufficiently 'repelling' atmosphere, with frosted fringes and jingling icicles, the wherewithal, to impress upon the mind of the prospective borrower that 'banking' was a cold, calculating, pitiless, pulseless business and the occasion one of awful solemnity, the main idea being, as near as we could figure it out, to give the culprit who dared enter its sacred precincts and deigned ask a favor at the hands of the spotless, bloodless, soulless cadavers who sat upon the throne 'ferminst' the wicked—that 'he who enters here must needs leave hope behind.'

The wonderful figures, indicating the 'individual responsibility' of the bankers finished the 'deadly' ad and gave a very beautiful ending to an otherwise commonplace obituary.

Our advertising for the first 25 years of banking, in addition to the stereotyped 'card local' in the home newspaper, consisted for the most part in 'personal' contact with the customer.

We did not adopt any scheme other than that, partly for the reason that 'going after business' through advertising was not considered good form and partly because we believed largely in the personal equation.

It always has been, and now is, our opinion that a 'good mixer' is the best kind of 'advertising', but any publicity to be worth the candle must be continuous, everlasting and eternal, not only perpetual motion, but like the movies, there should be frequent changes of program, new material, new scenes, new climaxes, new sensations, and we wish, right here and now, to go on record as being diametrically opposed to the views of a well-known banker, who still insists that bank advertisements should be very formal and subject to few changes.

A leopard cannot change its spots and it is next to impossible for the old-style conservative banker to change his, but he is doing it gradually, thank the Lord!

Mr. Frazier then takes up how he evolved his plan of original advertisements and the success attained by it. "Some four years ago," says Mr. Frazier, "we threw conventionality to the winds and inaugurated our present advertising campaign, writing our own ads and daring to publish them."

Our plan has been to select some topic of public interest and write what we are pleased to call a bank editorial, winding up with the bank ad and we use as a subject just what happens to come to our mind, suggested usually by some happening, as for instance our "Hell's a poppin'" ad brought to mind by witnessing some of the late, vulgar, low-down and suggestive dances and "A Thousand Dollar Nail," suggested by a little mishap to a celebrated automobile racer at the Vanderbilt Cup contest at Santa Monica, California.

Our baseball ad was suggested after the wonderful pitching of Leslie Bush, a young man of our acquaintance, in the world's series, 1913, between the Athletics and the New York Giants and which brought us a highly complimentary letter from Connie Mack.

We treat our subject in a more or less humorous strain. We aim to get some heart action in the editorial, and a bit of philosophy, winding up, always, with the inevitable bank ad.

The results have been rather astonishing in some ways. Our ads have attracted so much attention and we have received so many complimentary notices and letters from bankers, editors, lawyers, divines and customers, it has all made us feel that the effort has been worth while.

We wish to impress on the banking fraternity the importance of using plenty of space (don't be niggardly, as a banker cannot afford that) and of making your ad attractive with a taking head line and catchy phrases, and so put up by the printer as to attract instant attention as soon as the paper is opened.

Mr. Frazier urges co-operation with the editor and printer. "Plenty of space, a fair amount of fairly good copy and an expert printer will do the work."

No matter how good your business is, you can make it better and bigger, so why not put on your war paint and feathers, let out a few whoops, make a noise like a tornado, use your brains and go to it like a house afire."

Be a game rooster. Crow a bit. Be a booster. Blow a bit.

Advertising is simply blowing your own horn, and it is legitimate, providing you can carry a tune and deliver the goods when your 'bluff' is called."

The above was written before Mr. Frazier turned out his Brainerd-Verndale baseball bank ad.

SEVENTEEN YEAR LOCUST.

Department of Agriculture Has Defined Its Activity.

The department of agriculture has issued a notice of the appearance of the famous periodical locusts—"seven year," "thirteen year" and "seventeen year." The locust this time has made its debut in West Virginia. The locust takes many years to develop, but there are several recognized broods in different places over the United States.

The brood is common this year all over West Virginia, most of Ohio and with a sprinkling in the counties of Pennsylvania and Virginia. This is the northern variety of the "seventeen year" locust. There is another variety known as the "thirteen year" locust, but this is confined to the extreme south and never extends beyond the Potomac or farther than the southern part of Illinois.

In the grounds of the department of agriculture more than a decade ago some of the insects were collected and allowed to deposit their eggs in the shade trees. A record was made of the time when these eggs were planted, and they hatched out exactly seventeen years afterward, just as the name would indicate.

The locusts really do very little damage and do not injure large trees at all. They may do a little damage to young nurseries or young orchards, where a great many eggs have been deposited in the tender trees, but even with the young nurseries the bulk of the damage can be headed off by a vigorous pruning back after the eggs have been deposited.

Experiments have been tried with carbolic acid washes and numerous other insecticides. Few of them seem to have any material effect in checking the work of the insect.

A BRIDE FROM THE TOMB.

Odd Romance of Benedetto Marcello, the Venetian Composer.

Benedetto Marcello, one of the most famous Venetian composers, fell in love with a beautiful girl named Leonora Manfredi, who married Paolo Seranzo, a Venetian noble. She died a short time after her marriage, a victim to the harsh and jealous treatment of her husband.

Her body was laid out in state in one of the churches, and her lover actually succeeded in stealing the corpse and conveying it to a ruined crypt in one of the islands, and here he sat day and night by his lost love, singing and playing to her, as though by the force of his art he could recall her to life.

Leonora had a twin sister, Eliade, who was so like her that her closest friends could scarcely distinguish them. One day Eliade heard a singer in a gondola singing so exquisitely that she traced the gondola to the deserted island, and there she learned later the fate of her sister's corpse and the identity of Marcello. Aided by a servant, Eliade substituted herself for her sister's body, and when Marcello returned and called Leonora to awake he did not ask in vain, for apparently she rose alive from the coffin. Marcello when he found out the delusion was quite satisfied and married Eliade, but his happiness was short lived, as he died a few years afterward—London Telegraph.

disconcerted to find that the congregation only consisted of one man.

Remembering, however, that a well known minister had on one occasion preached to one man and converted him, he decided to give him the benefit of his discourse. At the close of a long sermon, he shook hands with his congregation and asked him if the sermon was too long.

"Oh, it makes no difference to me," was the reply, "I am your cabman."

Brainerd, it's clean baseball we want. So stay by our boys and say whatever you like about the management. All we ask is to coast for Brainerd.

Verndale played Little Falls Sun., July 19, and the good people of Little Falls were robbed of a score in the fourth when Mr. Big Man Frazier, the Verndale umpire, called Allison out stealing second, when the second baseman fell down and failed to touch him. The Little Falls Transcript says Frazier got himself 'in bad' with the crowd by this decision and when the fans voiced their disapproval he went to the visitor's bench and sat down, refusing to umpire until the proper amount of coaxing had been done by the members of the team.

Frazier, by the way, is the man who called the Brainerd manager a baby, a sissy boy and a piker through the medium of a newspaper advertisement because the Verndale-Brainerd game was called at 6 o'clock.

His umpiring was bad and he showed surprisingly little knowledge of the game for a baseball manager. The Verndale captain also registered a kick because the Little Falls fans stood up, although they were the required 50 feet from the base line and before the game started a kick was made on the umpiring.

I, the manager of the Brainerd baseball team, will say that the Verndale-Brainerd game belongs to Brainerd and the Verndale players know it. In the seventh inning Verndale made an overthrow at third base. The ball was picked up in the crowd and given to the third baseman, which made it a block ball. Rule 37, section 1, a block is a batted or thrown ball that is touched, stopped or handled by a person not engaged in the game.

Section 2. Whenever a block occurs, the umpire shall declare it, and the base runner may run the bases without liability to be put out until the ball has been returned to and held by the pitcher in his position. Now, did the Verndale umpire do this? No, he called our base runner out and when Captain Templeton tried to show him where he was wrong, Verndale was ready to quit. Captain Templeton gave in to the wonderful Mr. Frazier and his notorious ball team to keep him from quitting.

Does any manager or captain of any baseball team call this honest baseball? I only know of one and that's Frazier of the Verndale team.

Two Story Lake in Mexico.

One of the wonders of Mexico is the salt producing lake near Salinas station on the Tampico division of the Mexican Central railway, seventy-two miles west of San Luis Potosi. It may well be termed a two story lake, for at times there is a lake of fresh water overlying the salt lake. A water tight roof of green mud separates the fresh from the salt water. For a large part of the year there is no fresh water lake there. The sun licks it up soon after the rainy season is over. The salt secured from this lake goes all over Mexico. The lake has been worked about sixty-five years. The whole town of 5,000 people makes its living from the salt.—New York Sun.

"BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially is it the case with those who work in filthy ventilated factories—or those who are shut up indoors in winter time with a coal stove burning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic (oxide) gas. This blood, or blood which lacks the red blood corpuscles, in anemic people may have been caused by lack of good fresh air breathed into lungs, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion. Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

You yourself are probably telling your friends it's the Real Tobacco Chew. No "Right-Cut" user wants to see his friends go without it. Made of pure, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough. You get all the good of the rich, sappy tobacco.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the ordinary size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

WRITES BANK ADS THAT PULL

S. L. Frazier, Vice President First National Bank of Verndale, Landed in

THE NORTHWESTERN BANKER

Pioneer in Producing Real, Original Ads Increasing his Bank Deposits $75,000

S. L. Frazier, of Verndale, who boosted so well for his home town ball team, is a natural booster and does the same good work with his bank, the First National. In a several page article in The Northwestern Banker, he is paid this tribute: "As a writer of real, original and up-to-date advertisements, Mr. Frazier will probably rank first in the United States, for the First National Bank of Verndale, Minn., is known far and wide because of the unique ads which this live, progressive banker has written. Has it paid? Has it brought results? An increase of $75,000 in deposits and 250 checking accounts tells the story."

In telling the story on "How We Write Bank Ads That Pull," Mr. Frazier says: "Until some four years since we 'did it' like every other banker did it and as the ethics of this very dignified business demanded we do it, viz: by publishing a 2x4 card in the southwest corner of the local paper, a professional card encircled by a heavy black line (indicative of mourning) the entire ad, if such it might be termed, being in the nature of an epitaph on some neglected tombstone, in some out of the way cemetery, so obscured by weeds and grasses and trees, it required the services of the county surveyor to locate it."

On that wonderful card, tucked away where no one would be apt to see it, could be found, with the aid of a microscope, the names of the mighty men who controlled the destinies of the "Squedunk National Bank."

'Richard Rusty, President, Christopher Crusty, Cashier,' followed by an amazing array of old 'stiffs' on stiffs, pompous, patronizing, punctilious, petrified mummies, with side-whiskers, who knew nothing about the banking business, but were supposed to give the institution becoming dignity, a stove-polish finish and a sufficiently 'repelling' atmosphere, with frosted fringes and jangling icicles, the wherewithal, to impress upon the mind of the prospective borrower that 'banking' was a cold, calculating, pitiless, pulseless business and the occasion one of awful solemnity, the main idea being, as near as we could figure it out, to give the culprit who dared enter its sacred precincts and deigned ask a favor at the hands of the spotless, bloodless, soulless cadavers who sat upon the throne 'ferminst' the wicked—that 'he who enters here must needs leave hope behind.'

The wonderful figures, indicating the 'individual responsibility' of the bankers finished the 'deadly' ad and gave a very beautiful ending to an otherwise commonplace obituary.

Our advertising for the first 25 years of banking, in addition to the stereotyped 'card local' in the home newspaper, consisted for the most part in 'personal' contact with the customer.

We did not adopt any scheme other than that, partly for the reason that 'going after business' through advertising was not considered good form and partly because we believed largely in the personal equation.

It always has been, and now is, our opinion that a 'good mixer' is the best kind of 'advertising', but any publicity to be worth the candle must be continuous, everlasting and eternal, not only perpetual motion, but like the movies, there should be frequent changes of program, new material, new scenes, new climaxes, new sensations, and we wish, right here and now, to go on record as being diametrically opposed to the views of a well-known banker, who still insists that bank advertisements should be very formal and subject to few changes. A leopard cannot change its spots and it is next to impossible for the old-style conservative banker to change his, but he is doing it gradually, thank the Lord!

Be a game rooster. Crow a bit. Be a booster. Blow a bit.

Advertising is simply blowing your own horn, and it is legitimate, providing you can carry a tune and deliver the goods when your 'bluff' is called."

The above was written before Mr. Frazier turned out his Brainerd-Verndale baseball bank ad.

Silver Fox Fur.
The black silver fox fur is most valuable when there is no silver in it—when it is a pure rich black through out. A dressed skin of this sort averages 30 by 10 inches and will easily bring $3,500. A good silvery skin, clear and pure in color, with bluish underwood, is worth about $2,000.

Cheap Carpet Cleaner.
"What can I use to clean carpets?" asked a correspondent who signed herself, rather bashfully, "Young Bride." "Have you tried your young husband?" replied the answers editor, who lost his position just a few hours after the reply appeared.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Getting It Right.
"He's broke, and the girl he was engaged to has dropped him." "She dropped and broke him, eh?" "No. She broke and dropped him."—Houston Post.

Just a Hint.
Mr. Staylate—Is that clock right? Miss De Pink (wearily) I think it must need cleaning. It's been two or three hours going that last hour.—New York Journal.

Two Story Lake In Mexico.

One of the wonders of Mexico is the salt producing lake near Salinas station on the Tampico division of the Mexican Central railway, seventy-two miles west of San Luis Potosi. It may well be termed a two story lake, for at times there is a lake of fresh water overlying the salt lake. A water tight roof of green mud separates the fresh from the salt water. For a large part of the year there is no fresh water lake there. The sun licks it up soon after the rainy season is over. The salt secured from this lake goes all over Mexico. The lake has been working about sixty-five years. The whole town of 5,000 people makes its living from the salt.—New York Sun.

A Genuine Antique.

A dealer in antiques was showing an old violin to a probable buyer. "Yes," he said, "that is of historical interest, that is the identical fiddle Nero played while Rome was burning!" "Oh, that is a myth!" exclaimed the customer.

"Yes," said the dealer; "and Myth's name was on it, but it has got worn off!"

"BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially is it the case with those who work in ill ventilated factories—or those who are shut up indoors in winter time with a coal stove burning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic (oxide) gas. This blood, or blood which lacks the red blood corpuscles, in anemic people may have been caused by lack of good fresh air breathed into lungs, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion. Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Is a blood cleanser and alterative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action. It thus assists the body to manufacture rich red blood which feeds the heart, nerves—brain and organs of the body. The organ's work smoothly like machinery running in oil. You feel clean, strong and strong instead of tired, weak and faint. Nowadays you can obtain Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery Tablets, as well as the liquid form from all medicine dealers, or tablets by mail, prepaid in $1 or 50c size. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. PIERCE'S GREAT 1008 PAGE ILLUSTRATED COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER WILL BE SENT FREE, CLOTH BOUND FOR 31 ONE-CENT STAMPS.

ALL around you men are talking about "Right-Cut"

You yourself are probably telling your friends it's the Real Tobacco Chew. No "Right-Cut" user wants to see his friends go without it.

Made of pure, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough. You get all the good of the rich, sappy tobacco.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is the Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shreds so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

If your dealer does not sell it, send us 10c. in stamps for a pouch of "Right-Cut" Chewing Tobacco.
